Mr. Hatch left Dinagepore about 1800; supposing the animal to have been it years of age at that time, it must have been 60 years old at the time of its death. The Bibes Saheb, who is herself nearly 100 years of ago, took the greatest care of it; and it was employed for many years, atall the respectable Mahomedan weddings about the town and country, in carrying the child or youth who was bridegroom." To this the statistical editor of the Civil Service Journal appends the following note:- "-Mr. George Hatch removed to Calcutta as second member of the Board of Revenue in February, 1793: the pony must, therefore, have been nearly 70 to The weak point in the above seems to me to lie in the phrase "supposing the animal to have been 16 years of age at the time. The Maharajah of Durbhangal, has become the possessor of a suite of furniture which is absolutely unique, besides which its value is onhanced by the associations of bygone days. It consists of a card-table, four arm-chairs, two small "teapoys, and a sofa the whole made of solid ivory. It is said to have been presented by Tippoo Sultan to Warren Hastings; and Sir George Birdwood is of opinion that this is probably the ease, as the head and paws of a tiger (the badge of the My-ore family) figure conspicuously in the decorations of the chairs and sofa. Be this as it may, the furniture was undoubtedly the proparty of Warren Hastings, and remained at Day lesford till after his death, when it found its way into the collection of Lord Londesborough When this collection was sold at Christie's the furniture was bought by Messrs. Wertheimer & Co., dealers in bric-a-brac, for £1,500, and it was herajah. The card-table is of an oval shape, covered with the usual green cloth, which is ed, of wi h gold embroidery. It has six legs, delicutely carried and gilt in an arabesque design. The side of the table is similarly decorated, and a moulding runs round the edge, carved in imitation of the scales of a date-palm, and touched with gold. The backs and sides of the armchairs are beautifully carved in fretwork, two in arabesque patterns, and two in designs of conventional flowers. The seats of the latter are richly decorated in gold and monochrome, with oriental scenery and figures, among which latter are more strange wild beasts than ever come out. of the Ark. At intervals are medallions, carvet himingwith quaint human heads. The arms of all Charbonnas hese chairs end in ferocious-looking tigers little tempoys are also righly carved and gilt. but call for no particular description. The sein | Perak Sugar is a beautiful work of art. The back is formed of slabs of solid ivory (with open spaces between) carved in fretwork, with alternate designs of flower and palmieaves and arabesque patterns, all of these being richly gilt. The sides are carved and glit with a beautiful tracery of conventional flowers and birds. The arms end in tigers' heads and the front legs in tigers' paws, the whole being elaborately carved and gilt. The sofa and chairs were upholstered in blue estin, with edgings of hand-painted flowers; but
